

How to follow LBYC by txt message via Twitter

Because some people are having difficulty joining Twitter, Jamie Reid has written out these instructions – Step 4 is the one that most people seem to be missing out.

Step 1: Get a Twitter account. Really simple: go to www.twitter.com and choose a username and password

Step 2: Set up your mobile to Twitter. Click on SETTINGS at the top of the page in Twitter, then click on MOBILE. (It asks you to send a txt msg to them to confirm your cell no.)

Step 3: Start following LBYCNZ: find LBYCNZ and click on 'follow'.

Step 4: Get txt messages from LBYCNZ. ~ When you're on the LBYCNZ Twitter page there should be a small cellphone just under the LBYCNZ sign, click on this. (It should go green.)

And you're done.

We promise not to inundate you with messages – they will be short and tweet, and will be mainly reminders about events, and last minute racing cancellations.
